DEMANDS OF WOOLEN WEAVERS COMPROMISED. Employes of Hall Woolen Mill Accepted Increase of 3-4 Cent Per Yard.

At 12.30 o'clock Monday afternoon the weavers of the Joseph Hall woolen mill refused to start their looms unless they received an increase in wages of 5 mills, or 5 per cent. per yard. The overseer of the weaving department got in communication with the mill owners and they held a conference in the mill office. Daniel Casey acted as spokesman for the weavers. The request of the increase was refused, but it was compromised to increase 8-4 a cent a yard. The weavers went back to work about 3 o'clock.
